A Message from the Executive Director

Linda's Last Lines on the Front Line

On Friday, July 8, 2011 we held our Annual Membership Meeting at the Lincoln City Cultural Center. There is more information on the meeting inside this newsletter but I thought I would share with you my notes from my presentation as it gives you an insight to the tone of the meeting and my appreciation of being able to represent this community – specifically the business community:

Parents – I was raised believing that I was entitled to anything and everything as long as I worked for it. So I thank my parents – Mom (the one who shamelessly throws my name around to promote her own business) – for instilling a sense of the go-for-broke mentality that asks the question well....“Why Not?”

Husband and Family – I have found myself in a position/job/career that I never knew I wanted until my husband said to me one night....“Aren't you bored just hanging out on the deck, shopping, traveling to see the girls and grandkids? Look....there's an Office Manager position with the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce. Doesn't that sound like a fun thing to do? Think of all the people you will meet?” Thanks, honey....thanks a lot!

Volunteers – I have been with the Chamber for about 27 months – 16 months as the office manager, 11 months as the director. I have worn the hats of both positions simultaneously for approximately 18 months. I absolutely would not be standing here – alive – if I had not had our Chamber Volunteers. I would like to take this moment to introduce our very valued volunteers – most of whom are here as our guests today:

Jeanne Back - Newsletter Manager who supports me and the Chamber in so many ways – newsletter compilation, individual member, committee participant, long-time community partner

Mary Bennett – My shy Girl Friday who finds crowds uncomfortable but loves her Friday's at the Chamber

Dawn Bredimus – Who has been a volunteer for such a short period of time but whom I feel I've known forever. She's a committed community partner. And she keeps me on track with press releases.

Judy Cashner – Proof reader extraordinaire who is now back with The News Guard proofing THEIR mistakes. Thanks a lot!

Judy Chilcutt – Judy filled in for HUGE Chamber and my personal supporter, Dick Meehan. Judy classes up the office with her grace and brings our protector, the wonderful Manny Braveheart

Angie Foster – Fills so many slots – three 4 hours shifts. Angie was sent to us through the Community Consortium supported Jobs Program. Angie is a great support and resource to the Chamber

Kem Morrow – VCB transplant, the keeper of all things happening in Lincoln City, planter of flowers in front of the Chamber office and a great friend

Carole Snow - The one, who remains calm in all circumstances, knows our community so well and makes sure our brochures are filled to capacity in the Chamber office. And is the miracle worker that revives all of the indoor plants at the Chamber that I neglect

Collectively these volunteers fill approximately 40 hours at the Chamber office at a value of $21.36/hour - $854.40 per week - $44,428.80 annually.

Please join me in honoring and thanking these wonderful Chamber supporters.

Board of Directors – I want to acknowledge all of the Chamber Board of Directors – past and present who have supported the chamber office/me in so many ways and have allowed me the flexibility to test programs and ideas in the attempt to support this membership and it's mission statement to “strengthen the identity and enhance the image of our business community, enabling businesses to grow and prosper by serving as a unified voice and providing service to its membership.” Thank you!

Members – I struggle to articulate how great it is to have and feel the support from the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce members. You have all welcomed me wholeheartedly and supported me over the past couple of years in so many of our endeavors and I want you to know that I take that to heart. So, thank you!

- Linda Roy

Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce Mission Statement

The Chamber shall strengthen the identity and enhance the image of our business community, enabling businesses to grow and prosper by serving as a unified voice and providing service to its membership.

SPARE THE SPAM TEXT MESSAGES

Lake Oswego, Ore. – June 2, 2011 – Text messaging has become a mainstream form of communication for many, so consequently, spammers are utilizing it too.

“Unwanted, unsolicited text messages can be costly and annoying,” said Robert W.G. Andrew, CEO of Better Business Bureau serving Alaska, Oregon and Western Washington. “Preventing spam entirely may be impossible, but there are ways to reduce it.”

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act and Controlling the Assault of Non-Solicited Pornography and Marketing Act—also known as the CAN-SPAM Act—were developed to curb mounting unwanted commercial advertising. According to the Federal Communications Commission:

Unwanted “commercial messages” sent to cell phones from online communications, such as email and Internet addresses, are prohibited.

“Short messages” sent from one mobile phone to another, without the use of an Internet address, are not covered by the FCC ban.

Auto-dialers are prohibited when sending unwanted text messages to wireless phones.

Consumers can reduce text message spam by utilizing simple steps:

Register Phones: Visit www.donotcall.gov to register phones on the National Do Not Call Registry to prevent unsolicited text messages and phone calls. Violators can be reported to this same resource.

Understand Permissions: Regardless of National Do Not Call Registry participation, consumers who have given prior consent or have an established business relationship with the sender are not protected under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. Many retail stores ask for phone numbers at checkout; while some are gathering demographics, others are sending shoppers text messages. Before releasing numbers, ask if they’re required and how they’ll be used.

Block Messages: Contact wireless providers. Many allow users to refuse messages from certain delivery types. Ask providers for help with reducing and reporting spam.

Don’t Talk Back: Spammers thrive on feedback, so don’t respond to unknown text messages. If excessive unwanted messages continue, consider changing phone numbers. Learn more about protecting information at www.bbb.org.

Better Business Bureau serving Alaska, Oregon and Western Washington: Working to advance marketplace trust, BBB is a neutral not-for-profit organization supported by BBB Accredited Businesses. BBB provides ethical business standards, BBB Business Reviews, Charity Reviews, complaint handling, marketplace events and tips. For more information, contact BBB or visit www.bbb.org.

LINCOLN CITY LOOKS GOOD

The following email came to us by way of one of our Lincoln City traveling business people, who took note of businesses on the south coast and elsewhere which will remain unidentified:

“Just wanted to let you know that I drove back from California two weeks ago on Highway 101 and the southern part of the state is in sad shape. Closed storefronts, for rent signs everywhere, no traffic on 101. Buildings needed to be painted, it looked like a dustbowl city. The road was all broken up and jagged and miserable to drive. I had dinner at (one of the southern coastal restaurants) and at 7 pm was driving back onto Highway 101 from the restaurant parking lot. Two lanes on Highway 101 on both sides.

No traffic at all. We sat and waited for over 5 minutes (we were timing) without one car coming or going. So sad. Driving into Lincoln City we saw prosperity. The casino was full that Saturday night. (One of the south coast casinos) had 10 cars in their parking lot if that many.

In Lake Tahoe I went into (one casino) and counted 16 people in the ENTIRE casino. At 3 pm. There were homeless all over the streets of Reno with so many casinos boarded up and shut down.

Lincoln City looks good!

BTW, made goal for the month, up 1 % for the year. Biggest day EVER in the store was Memorial Day Sunday where we broke our old record!

Lincoln city looks good...

thought I would share.”

...and, we at the Chamber thought we’d share that with you!

Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce News

In the spirit of giving and supporting one another the Chamber passed on one of their most precious and prized possessions – THE DUCKY DERBY! The Chamber has been diligently looking for adopted homes for the little tykes and we found them all a great home with BFEY – Business For Excellence In Youth, the organization that supports the Back Pack Program.

The luncheon was held at the Lincoln City Cultural Center and catered by Oregon Coast Catering. The partnerships we have with our members are one of the strengths of the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce and we appreciate their hard work and continued support – Thank you!

This event was sponsored by The News Guard, Pacific West Ambulance, and Andrews & Cramer, LLC. Our sponsors each brought at least one raffle prize and in return were able to speak to the audience about their business and programs they offer.

In addition we played the “Spin the Wheel” game that provided additional drawing prizes. The members who provided those prizes were: Tanger Outlet, Lincoln City Realty, Mo’s Restaurant, Roadhouse 101, Glass Confusion, Starfish Framing and More, Liberty Inn, and Rock Your World Pacific NW Gem & Art Gallery.

We thank our members for their generosity and continued support!

Business After Hours

“The Chamber’s Business After Hours is an opportunity for business members to showcase their places of business, their services and the products they provide while offering a relaxed event where chamber and community members can meet and connect.”

Rusty Truck Brewing

Can someone say celebration? That’s exactly what our Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors kicked off on Friday, July 8th with a Ribbon Cutting. All weekend long Roadhouse 101 celebrated the Grand Opening of their newest venture, Rusty Truck Brewing Company. Owner Brian Whitehead, his brewmaster Ron Hulka, and the rest of the Roadhouse 101 family provided a weekend full of great food, great entertainment, and great fun.....oh, and great beer!

Ribbon Cuttings

Our Chamber Ambassadors celebrate new and relocating businesses with Ribbon Cutting/Grand Opening ceremonies, proclaiming them Business of the Day with a plaque.

Chinook’s Seafood Grill

On Thursday, June 30th, we celebrated the re-opening of Chinook Winds Resort Hotel Restaurant – Chinook’s Seafood Grill. We were presented with samplings of the restaurant’s new menu offerings with wine pairings as well as great entertainment and raffle prizes. Sar Richards, General Manager of Chinook Winds Casino Resort, and his staff were gracious hosts. If you haven’t been in to the restaurant lately, check it out. They are located at 1501 NW 44th Street. For more information call 541-994-3655.

Nauti Mermaid Bar & Bistro

Great turn out for the Ribbon Cutting and Grand Opening of The Nauti Mermaid Bar and Bistro, held Sunday, June 26! Thank you all for supporting this fun new gathering place. Good food, good friends, great entertainment by The Ocean. Thanks to our Ambassadors for a job well done and our hosts Bonnie and Ron! The Nauti Mermaid is located at 1343 NW Highway 101. For more information call 541-614-1001.

The Chamber invites you to join the Ambassador Committee. There is a short form to fill out and Chamber membership is required but don't feel like you have to be part of a business - half of our existing Ambassadors are Individual members and participate because they enjoy supporting our business community through volunteer leadership. If you are interested and would like more information please call the Chamber at 541-994-3070.

Lincoln City Chamber Board of Directors Annual Retreat

After the Annual Membership Meeting the newly formed Chamber Board of Directors and the Executive Director attended their Annual Board Retreat. And, let me tell you it was hard work but there was also play.

Thank you to Lynn Nelson for the location, NW Natural for sponsoring, and Side Door Café for catering.

While we revisited the past objectives and created new ones, our main focus was on providing relevant services and support to our members - increasing our outreach to existing members and speaking with potential new businesses – growing our committees, create new fundraising opportunities – and increased visibility.

As a reward for our hard work, Lynn Nelson devised a scavenger hunt of sorts that sent us running inside/outside her house. Up and down, all around until the winning team emerged with the prizes! It ended in a tie where teams shared the rewards – beautiful glass floats! Thank you again, Lynn. It was a great day!

Lincoln City Annual Meeting

Celebrating Where We Have Been – Looking Forward to Where We Are Going was the theme for this year's Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce Annual Membership Meeting on Friday, July 8th. These meetings in past years have taken many forms from celebratory, formal, fun, or an evening affair.

This year was a bit low key but fun and certainly focused. We reviewed this past fiscal year and the objectives that had laid the groundwork for the year. We celebrated our successes such as improvement of our website which has been determined to remain a focus in the future, adding our social media marketing campaign, expanding our hours with the generous offer of our Ambassador Committee, the addition of Professional Development opportunities with the Roundtable Series, and the growth of our membership. We revisited our fundraising campaigns to refocus our energies on what works best. And we honored those who bring so much of themselves in their support of the efforts of the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce. One of those recognized and honored was long-time Ambassador and Chamber supporter, "Papa" Harold Lloyd. Papa was named Ambassador of the Year for his commitment to this organization and we are much honored to have him on our team.

Volunteer Buzz

Due to a printing glitch in last month's Trade Winds, the following is a repeat:

Blissfully, I am sitting here unable to think for all the racket and commotion going on outside my window. I say blissfully, because all that noise and commotion is being made by those wonderful men from LANDSCAPE SERVICES CO. who are darting between raindrops, hedge trimming and sprucing up your Chamber grounds out of the goodness of their hearts.

Many, many thanks to Chamber member, Landscape Services. Your efforts are so very appreciated. Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce is fortunate to have so many active members giving their time and services to make us shine. Thank you ALL!
